September 18th is the third annual INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE as proclaimed in a unanimous resolution by all member nations of the United Nations. The United Nations General Assembly will be convening in New York City and, at that very moment, will be observing their traditional moment of silence with which they begin their year's work.

where: Wherever you are at 12 noon on September 18th.
You may join with thousands of us, including speakers and entertainers, who will come together at Civic Center Plaza (Polk and McAllister) to observe the Moment of Silence and celebrate the United Nations INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE from noon to 1:30 p.m. (Arrive in time for the minute of silence at noon.)
You may participate in a 12-hour vigil at Grace Cathedral on Nob Hill honoring this day. (3 a.m. until 3 p.m.)
Or, you may wish to organize an observance of a minute of silence, moment of sound for your friends, congregation, co-workers, neighborhood or associates. (Citizens for peace are organizing observance of this day in many other cities and countries throughout the world.)

who: You and everyone who cares about peace in our world.

why: The INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE will serve as a reminder of our permanent commitment to peace, above all interests and differences of any kind, and will give positive evidence to that commitment. Individuals, acting in concert with one another, do make a difference in the quality of our lives, our institutions, our communities of activity, our planetary future. Through working in concert, people become aware of and manifest the essential spirit that unites us amidst our diverse ways.

how: Observe the minute of silence.
Spread the word to your family, friends, neighbors, co-workers and community groups.
Participate in the monthly convenings to organize the event.
